

DEPARTMENT H - HORTICULTURE

Rules

1. Division I is for adults, Division II is for youth age 5-18.
2. Each entry must have a label showing department, division, class number, cultivar/variety name, and name of exhibitor.
3. Exhibitors may have more than one entry per class in Sections A-D only when the entries are different in variety, cultivar or color (e.g. red onions and white onions, red rose and white rose, or in named varieties, a different name). Exhibitors may have only one entry per class in the Design section.
4. If more than one item is required for vegetable or fruit display, items must be placed on a paper plate or foil pan. Exhibitors should provide their own containers for cut flowers (clear glass).
5. All exhibits in Sections A-D must be grown by the exhibitor except for potted plants, which should have been in their possession for at least six weeks before the fair. (This does not pertain to plant material used in designs. All designs must have been made by the exhibitor.)
6. No artificial plant material may be added to any design or any horticulture exhibit. Flags and religious symbols may not be used in any design.
7. A background may be used for designs but must be furnished by exhibitor. Accessories may also be used but are subordinate to the plant material and within the dimensions for the design.
8. The committee or helpers are not responsible for any breakage or loss.
9. For more information about exhibiting vegetables, contact the Extension Center and ask for Guide Sheet 6230 "Exhibiting and Judging Garden Vegetables."
10. Any exhibits not picked up at checkout time will be forfeited. Premium monies will also be forfeited. (Exhibitor may arrange for someone else to pick up.
11. Awards (Ribbons): One blue (1st), one red (2nd) and one white (3rd) ribbon may be awarded in each class. One blue, one red, and one white rosette may be awarded in each section as selected from the blue ribbon winners. However, if the number of entries is not sufficient in any section, then only the blue rosette may be awarded.
