Liability Statements

The Atchison County Fair will not be responsible to any person, individual, corporation or association for any loss by fire, theft, damage, or personal injury sustained by anyone through the negligence of any person or group of persons, exhibits or exhibitors.

The Atchison County Fair Board, University of Missouri at Atchison County Extension Council their members, officers, employees and assignees will not be responsible to any person, individual, corporation or association for any and all liabilities, claims, demands, actions, and causes of action whatsoever, directly or indirectly arising out of or related to any loss, damage, injury, or death, that may be sustained related to COVID-19 while participating in any activity while in, on, or around the premises or while using the facilities during the Atchison County Fair that may lead to unintentional exposure or harm due to COVID-19.

COUNTY FAIR ANIMAL CARE COMMITTEE POLICY STATEMENT

The Atchison County Fair is the showplace for animal agriculture for the county. All animals and livestock shown, housed, or displayed shall receive care that is humane, healthful, and consistent with accepted practices. Cruelty, neglect, or indifference to animal comfort will not be tolerated and will constitute grounds for removal from the premises. Animal care shall be consistent with sound husbandry practices and with rules and regulations set by the Atchison County Fair Board. Professional veterinary care will be provided as needed. Animals experiencing illness, injury, or discomfort will be professionally attended to only by a licensed veterinarian. Exhibits shall reflect the care and concern that Missourians have for livestock, poultry, companion animals, and wildlife.

GENERAL LIVESTOCK RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The 2020 Missouri State Fair livestock rules will be followed, with the following exceptions:
2. Exhibitor must be officially enrolled in a 4-H program or FFA Chapter.

4. All large animals (sheep, goats, swine, and beef cattle) will be required to have health certificates to show at the Atchison County Fair. BEFORE UNLOADING you must show health papers to a fair board member at the office. This includes pee-wees and is MANDATORY, with NO EXCEPTIONS, or you will be sent home.
5. Exhibitors must bring their own feed, water buckets, pans, and bedding. Hogs will bed on east side of hog barn. Washing will not be allowed in hog pens. There will be designated areas for used bedding.
6. Exhibitors must wear the official show t-shirt provided by the Fair Board during the shows and auction.
7. Exhibitors must show their own animals unless there are extenuating circumstances, in which case the exhibitor must notify the specie superintendent in a timely manner prior to the show. The livestock committee will rule on the final decision. Only bonafide county exhibitor or family member may show in an exhibitor's place.
8. The same animal is not allowed to show in both breeding and market classes.
9. Uncontrollable animals may be dismissed from the show ring by the superintendent or the fair board president.
10. All livestock classified by Danish System: Blue, Red, and White.
11. Any grievance must be voiced before the end of the show to the show superintendent and Fair Board president.
12. The livestock show will follow the animal health requirements for the 2020 Missouri State Fair (visit: www.mostatefair.com for requirements).
13. No intact males of any specie will be allowed to show, with the exception of feeder calves, poultry, and rabbits.
14. All animals that sell at auction must show.
15. An exhibitor may sell a maximum of ONE (1) animals in the auction. Auction animals can include breeding or market livestock, bucket calves, poultry, and rabbits. Feeder calves cannot be sold in the auction.
16. Buyers will bid the premium on dollars per animal starting from $0. Buyers pay premium bid the day of the sale.
17. The Atchison County Fair Board will make arrangements for hogs to be delivered to sale barn or packing plant.
18. Exhibitors have 1 calendar year to cash premium checks.
19. All animals in sheep and cattle barns need to be removed by 10pm Friday evening or all money earned will be forfeited and good standings will be compromised for the following year per the fair board's discession.

ATCHISON COUNTY MARKET LIVESTOCK RULES

- 1. Weigh-day is optional, but market animals must be weighed at weigh-day to be eligible for the rate-of-gain contest and in-county champion.
2. To choose in-county champion, grand champions will stand as in-county champion. If there are no grand champions, reserve champions will stand as in-county. If there are no grand or reserve champions, the top placing in-county animals from each class will compete for in-county champion.

DEPARTMENT H - HORTICULTURE

Rules

1. Division I is for adults, Division II is for youth age 5-18.
2. Each entry must have a label showing department, division, class number, cultivar/variety name, and name of exhibitor.
3. Exhibitors may have more than one entry per class in Sections A-D only when the entries are different in variety, cultivar or color (e.g. red onions and white onions, red rose and white rose, or in named varieties, a different name). Exhibitors may have only one entry per class in the Design section.
4. If more than one item is required for vegetable or fruit display, items must be placed on a paper plate or foil pan. Exhibitors should provide their own containers for cut flowers (clear glass).
5. All exhibits in Sections A-D must be grown by the exhibitor except for potted plants, which should have been in their possession for at least six weeks before the fair. (This does not pertain to plant material used in designs. All designs must have been made by the exhibitor.)
6. No artificial plant material may be added to any design or any horticulture exhibit. Flags and religious symbols may not be used in any design.
7. A background may be used for designs but must be furnished by exhibitor. Accessories may also be used but are subordinate to the plant material and within the dimensions for the design.
8. The committee or helpers are not responsible for any breakage or loss.
9. For more information about exhibiting vegetables, contact the Extension Center and ask for guide 6230 "Exhibiting and Judging Garden Vegetables."
10. Any exhibits not picked up at checkout time will be forfeited. Premium monies will also be forfeited. Exhibitor may arrange for someone else to pick up.
11. Awards (Ribbons): One blue (1st), one red (2nd) and one white (3rd) ribbon may be awarded in each class. One blue, one red, and one white rosette may be awarded in each section as selected from the blue ribbon winners. However, if the number of entries is not sufficient in any section, then only the blue rosette may be awarded.
