Liability Statement

The Atchison County Fair will not be responsible to any person, individual, corporation or association for any loss by fire, theft, damage, or personal injury sustained by anyone through the negligence of any person or group of persons, exhibits or exhibitors.

COUNTY FAIR ANIMAL CARE COMMITTEE POLICY STATEMENT

The Atchison County Fair is the showplace for animal agriculture for the county. All animals and livestock shown, housed, or displayed shall receive care that is humane, healthful, and consistent with accepted practices. Cruelty, neglect, or indifference to animal comfort will not be tolerated and will constitute grounds for removal from the premises. Animal care shall be consistent with sound husbandry practices and with rules and regulations set by the Atchison County Fair Board. Professional veterinary care will be provided as needed. Animals experiencing illness, injury, or discomfort will be professionally attended to only by a licensed veterinarian. Exhibits shall reflect the care and concern that Missourians have for livestock, poultry, companion animals, and wildlife.

GENERAL LIVESTOCK RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The 2017 Missouri State Fair livestock rules will be followed, with the following exceptions:
2. Exhibitor must be officially enrolled in a 4-H program or FFA Chapter.
3. Ownership deadlines: breeding gilts, 90 days; market hogs, 5/1; breeding sheep, 7/1; market lambs, 6/1; breeding does, 6/1; market goats, 6/1; breeding beef, 6/1; market beef, 3/1.
4. All large animals (sheep, goats, swine, and beef cattle) will be required to have health certificates to show at the Atchison County Fair.
5. Exhibitors must bring their own feed, water buckets, pans, and bedding. Hogs will bed on east side of hog barn. Washing will not be allowed in hog pens. There will be designated areas for used bedding.
6. Exhibitors must wear the official show t-shirt provided by the Fair Board during the shows and auction.
7. Exhibitors must show their own animals unless there are extenuating circumstances, in which case the exhibitor must notify the specie superintendent in a timely manner prior to the show. The livestock committee will rule on the final decision. Only bonafide county exhibitor or family member may show in an exhibitor's place.
8. The same animal is not allowed to show in both breeding and market classes.
9. Uncontrollable animals may be dismissed from the show ring by the superintendent or the fair board president.
10. All livestock classified by Danish System: Blue, Red, and White.
11. Any grievance must be voiced before the end of the show to the show superintendent and Fair Board president.
12. The livestock show will follow the animal health requirements for the 2017 Missouri State Fair (visit www.mostatefair.com for requirements).
13. No intact males of any specie will be allowed to show, with the exception of feeder calves, poultry, and rabbits.
14. All animals that sell at auction must show.
15. An exhibitor may sell a maximum of TWO (2) animals in the auction. Auction animals can include breeding or market livestock, bucket calves, poultry, and rabbits. Feeder calves cannot be sold in the auction.
16. Buyers will bid the premium on dollars per animal starting from $0. Buyers pay premium bid the day of the sale.
17. The sale order will be set up to allow all exhibitors to sell one (1) animal before an exhibitor's second animal is sold.
18. The Atchison County Fair Board will make arrangements for hogs to be delivered to sale barn or packing plant.

ATCHISON COUNTY MARKET LIVESTOCK RULES

1. Weigh-day is optional, but market animals must be weighed at weigh-day to be eligible for the rate-of-gain contest and in-county champion.
2. To choose in-county champion, grand champions will stand as in-county champion. If there are no grand champions, reserve champions will stand as in-county. If there are no grand or reserve champions, the top placing in-county animals from each class will compete for in-county champion.

SHOWMANSHIP GUIDELINES

1. Showmanship classes include both breeding and market animals.
2. The exhibitor must show his/her own animal during the showmanship class.
3. Prizes will be awarded for Champion Showmanship in each of the three showmanship classes: 11 yrs and under, 12-16 yrs, and 17 yrs and older. Age is as of January 1, year of show.
